

Leadership training for self-advocates and for family members

Learning together and having fun at the leadership training in Brussels in September 2017

Meeting politicians at the European Parliament during the leadership training in 2017

Inclusion Europe is organising a 3-day training in Brussels.

The training will bring together self-advocates and family members from all over Europe.

We invite you to join the event.

You will learn how to speak up for the things that are important to you at European level.

You will learn about European elections and the right to take part in politics.

You will meet self-advocates, family members and people from the political groups working at the European Parliament.

From: Tuesday 2 October 2018, 14:00

To: Thursday 4 October 2018, 15:00

Where: Brussels, Belgium
